Robin Hood's Medieval Faire Returns
For 14th Year in Harwinton, Connecticut

Harwinton, Connecticut - Robin Hood's Medieval Faire is back for its 14th year, promising a fun-filled experience for all ages. This year's event will be held on the Harwinton Fairgrounds at 150 Locust Road every Saturday and Sunday from May 20 to July 2.

Step back in time to the days of Robin Hood, when knights, archers, and jesters roamed the countryside. Visitors can enjoy live performances, including jousting tournaments, archery, turkey legs, and medieval-themed shows throughout the Faire. There will also be plenty of food vendors and artisans selling unique wares.

This year's faire will feature a new "Sheriff's Challenge" on the opening weekend, where guests can earn complimentary tickets to return just for buying merchandise from artisans in their marketplace.

"We are excited to bring back Robin Hood's Medieval Faire for its 14th year," said the event organizers. "It's always a joy to see people of all ages come together to celebrate this legendary tale and experience the excitement of the medieval era."

Tickets for the event can be purchased online or at the gate. For more information, visit the faire's website at www.robinhoodsfaire.com. Join us for a day of fun, excitement, and adventure at Robin Hood's Medieval Faire! Huzzah!

FAST FACTS

- Who: Anyone who enjoys history, the outdoors, and family fun.
- What: Robin Hood's Medieval Faire.
- Where: Harwinton Fairgrounds, 150 Locust Road, Harwinton, Connecticut.
- When: Every Saturday & Sunday from May 20 to July 2, 2023, 10:30 am to 6:00 pm.
- Why: To escape to a simpler time to have some good old-fashioned fun.
- Cost: General Admission (ages 16+) $15, Youth (ages 7-15) $10, and Child (ages 0-6) FREE.

Robin Hood's Medieval Faire -- Where Fun Saves The Day!

###